In most cases we will be able to ship your order within 2 days. If we are out of stock on any items, you will receive an email or phone call to determine if you would prefer a substitute item. Shipping charges are $6.00 for orders under $40 and $9 for orders between $40 and $74.99; and Free shipping for orders over $75. Shipping rates are determined from the order total before taxes. Orders can also be available for pickup.

Return Policy

I have a hassle-free money-back return policy. A full refund minus any pro-rated discounts will be made when I receive the product. Replacement of damaged products includes free shipping.

Spa Parties

I offer two types of spa parties in Spokane, Washington. For a traditional “sales” type party, the hostess receives special gifts, free products and special discounts. Your guests also receive free treatments and get to sample products. You can also host a “no sales” party which is more appropriate for special occasion parties such as bridal showers and birthdays. Both types of parties are a great excuse to get together with friends and family to relax and unwind. You can find more information at www.soapsbybonnie.com/spa_party.php

Privacy Policy

I will not sell or give away any of your personal information. Any information collected will only be used to help in product development and to make your experience better. Personal information on the website is collected solely to fulfill orders and to make return visits more convenient.

A note on skin allergies

I have avoided the harsh chemicals and preservatives that cause many allergic reactions with commercial lotions and soaps; however, I cannot eliminate all possible allergens. I have listed the ingredients and the most common allergens so if you know what kind of allergies you have, you can avoid those products. As with any beauty product, discontinue use if you experience any skin irritation or allergic reaction. This may be the first time your skin has been exposed to some of these essential oils, fragrance oils and even base oils so pay attention to any adverse changes in your skin. Since there are so many things that affect your skin (from stress to diet to weather), you may wish to perform a patch test to see if a mild reaction was really related to the product. Simply place the product on a discreet location, cover and wait several days to see if a reaction occurs. Please call or email me to report any unexpected reaction.

Handcrafted Soaps – A Truly Unique Experience

Once you have experienced handmade soaps you will find it hard to go back to those chain-store commercial bars.

- ❖ They are gentle with built-in moisturizers such as glycerin (a natural by-product of the soap-making process) and whole oils.
- ❖ They have great lather, especially when used with a bath pouf.
- ❖ They come in all kinds of great scents.
- ❖ As they age they just get better – harder, longer-lasting, and gentler.
- ❖ They do not contain preservatives or harsh detergents.
- ❖ They contain a variety of oils and butters so that those with specific needs or allergies can still find a bar that works for them.
- ❖ They also contain extra oils so that each bar contains whole emollient oils for even more moisturizing.

Tips on use and storage:

- ❖ Store in a cool, dry, dark place. In high humidity the soaps may “sweat”. This is normal. Try to find a drier location.
- ❖ To increase the life of your handcrafted soap, after use place the bars in a soap dish that drains well. When they absorb water, they become soft and you will use them up rather quickly.
- ❖ As they age in a cool, dry location they will naturally lose water and shrink. This is normal and will actually result in a harder, longer-lasting bar.
- ❖ If the exfoliation is a little too strong, just use the soap with a wash cloth or body pouf.

Allergy Warning: The soaps may contain ingredients that cause allergic reactions. Read the ingredients carefully. Read the ingredients carefully. See page 2 for the complete allergy warning.

Just the Basics

These soaps cut out the fancy packages and trim to save you money. They also contain no additives or scents so they will be less likely to initiate an allergic reaction.

Lotion Bars

Lotion Bars are solid bars made with beeswax, plant butters and plant oils. The mixture of oils, butters and beeswax melts when warmed to body temperature. The oils are absorbed into the skin, softening and healing dry skin. Vitamin E provides additional nutrition for the skin.

How to Use: Place in the palm of your hand to warm for a few seconds. Rub on your skin as the oil melts. Place the bar back in the storage container and continue to rub into the oils into the skin.
